ADDRESSING DPRK PROVOCATIONS AND ATTACKS:
RESULTS OF A U.S.-JAPAN-ROK WARGAME

Sasakawa USA convened former senior military and government officials from Japan, Korea, and the U.S. to participate in tabletop exercise on trilateral and bilateral responses to North Korea contingencies

WASHINGTON, D.C. — From February 14 to 16, Sasakawa USA ran a three-day tabletop exercise designed to test the policy, diplomatic, and military responses of the United States, Japan, and South Korea to North Korean provocations that involve all three countries. The results of this exercise will be released on March 22, 2018 in the report “Testing Trilateral, U.S.-Japan, and U.S.-ROK Responses to North Korean Provocations: Tabletop Exercise Pacific Trident.”

Join Sasakawa USA on March 22, 2018 for a lunch and moderated panel discussion on Exercise Pacific Trident and its findings.

Thursday, March 22, 2018, 12:30 -2:30pm
First Amendment Lounge
The National Press Club
529 14th Street, NW, 13th Floor
Washington, D.C. 20045

Register Here

Speakers:
ADM Dennis Blair (ret.), Chairman, Sasakawa USA
LtGen In-Bum Chun (ret.), Former Deputy Commander, First ROK Army
Ms. Katrina Manson, Foreign Policy and Defense Correspondent, Financial Times
VADM Masanori Yoshida (ret.), Vice President, International Security Affairs, Sojitz Corporation of America
AMB James Zumwalt (ret.), CEO, Sasakawa USA

About Sasakawa Peace Foundation USA

Sasakawa Peace Foundation USA is an independent American non-profit, non-partisan institution devoted to research, analysis, and better understanding of the U.S.-Japan relationship. Through research and education programs, Sasakawa USA facilitates people-to-people exchange and dialogue between American and Japanese policymakers, influential citizens, and the broader public.

# #