Mr. Toshiya Matsuki Joins Sasakawa Peace Foundation USA as a Senior Fellow (Non-Resident)

WASHINGTON, DC – Sasakawa Peace Foundation USA (Sasakawa USA), a leading U.S.-Japan think tank, has named Mr. Toshiya Matsuki a senior fellow (non-resident).

Purpose

With more than four decades of experience in global technology, international business development, and socio-economic policy research, Mr. Matsuki brings deep expertise in corporate strategy, Asia-Pacific markets, and cross-border business engagement. At Sasakawa USA, Mr. Matsuki looks forward to introducing leading experts in economic security and technology competition. His knowledge, experience, and networks will also support programming at Sasakawa USA by strengthening its subject matter research, especially as it relates to economics and business.

Biography

Throughout Mr. Matsuki's long tenure at NEC Corporation, a major Japanese multinational information technology and electronics company, he has held numerous senior leadership positions across Japan, Singapore, Europe, the Americas, and the broader EMEA region. In his current role as senior advisor, Mr. Matsuki continues to advance international collaboration at the intersection of business, technology, and policy.

From 2022 to 2025, he served as the president of the Institute for International Socio-Economic Studies, an independent think tank of the NEC Group. He has also served as executive vice president, chief commercial officer, president of NEC's Global Business Unit, and chief executive officer of NEC Asia Pacific Pte. Ltd. Additionally, he has contributed to regional economic dialogue as an alternate member of the APEC Business Advisory Council for Japan and as chair of the Sub-Committee on Policy Planning for the Committee of South Asia at Keidanren, Japan Business Federation.

Mr. Matsuki holds a bachelor's in Economics from Keio University (B.A. 1983).
